PART II
THE NATIONAL PROSECUTION AUTHORITY

Establishment of National Prosecution Authority

3. (1) There is hereby established the National Prosecution Authority which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name and with power, subject to this Act, to do all such things as a body corporate may, by law, do or perform.

(2) The provisions of the State Proceedings Act shall apply to civil proceedings by, or against, the Authority as if, for a reference to the State there were substituted a reference to the Authority.

(3) The First Schedule applies to the Authority.

4. (1) The seal of the Authority shall be such device as may be determined by the Board and shall be kept by the Secretary.

(2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson or any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.

(3) Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate would not be required to be under seal, may be entered into or executed without seal on behalf of the Authority by the Chairperson or any other person generally or specifically authorised by the Authority in that behalf.

(4) Any document purporting to be a document under the seal of the Authority or issued on behalf of the Authority shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be so executed or issued, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

Seal of Authority

5. The functions of the Authority are to—

   (a) appoint state advocates and prosecutors and promote appropriate standards of practice by state advocates and prosecutors in criminal prosecution;

   (b) develop, promote and enforce internationally comparable practice standards for prosecutors;

   (c) promote the integrity and enhance the status of state advocates and prosecutors so as to promote honourable and good practice and increase the confidence of the public in state advocates and prosecutors;

   (d) promote an understanding of professional ethics amongst the prosecutors and ensure that the rules and guidelines for professional ethics are responsive to the effective administration of criminal justice;
(e) implement an effective prosecution mechanism so as to maintain the rule of law and contribute to fair and equitable criminal justice and the effective protection of citizens against crime;

(f) conduct research into the various disciplines of law so as to study the role that the prosecution mechanism should play in establishing effective rule of law and human rights and to bring the law in line with the developments and best practices of other countries;

(g) cooperate with the police, the courts, the legal profession and other Government agencies or institutions so as to ensure the fairness and effectiveness of prosecutions; and

(h) do all such other things as are necessary or incidental to the performance of its functions under this Act.

6. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the Authority shall not, in the performance of its functions, be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority, other than the Director of Public Prosecutions.

7. (1) There is hereby constituted a Board of the Authority which shall consist of the following members appointed by the Minister:

(a) the Director of Public Prosecutions, who shall be the Chairperson;

(b) a representative of the Attorney-General, who shall be the Vice-Chairperson;

(c) the Director of Administration of the Authority, who shall be the Secretary;

(d) a representative of the Public Service Management Division;

(e) a representative of the Ministry responsible for labour; and

(f) two other persons appointed by the Minister.

(2) A person shall not be appointed as a member of the Board if that person—

(a) is not a citizen of Zambia;

(4) A member may resign upon giving one month’s notice in writing to the Minister.

(5) The office of a member shall become vacant—

(a) if the member is absent, without reasonable excuse from three consecutive meetings of the Board of which the member has had notice;

(b) if the member is adjudged bankrupt;

(c) if the member is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law;

(d) if the member is declared to be of unsound mind; or

(e) upon the member’s death.

(6) The provisions of the First Schedule apply to the Board.

8. (1) Subject to the Constitution, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall have authority over the exercising of all the powers and the performance of all the duties and functions conferred upon, imposed on or assigned to, prosecutors by this Act or under any other law.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the functions of the Director of Public Prosecutions are to—

(a) institute and undertake criminal proceedings against any person before any court, other than a court martial, in respect of any offence alleged to have been committed by that person;

(b) take over and continue any such criminal proceedings as may have been instituted or undertaken by any other person or authority; and

(c) discontinue, at any stage before judgment is delivered, any criminal proceedings instituted or undertaken by the Director of Public Prosecutions or any other person or authority;
(d) set the qualification for the appointment of prosecutors;

(e) advise prosecutors on all matters relating to criminal offences;

(f) review a decision to prosecute, or not to prosecute, any criminal offence;

(g) advise the Minister on all matters relating to the administration of criminal justice;

(h) liaise with the Chief State Advocate, the Deputy Chief State Advocates, the prosecutors, the legal profession and legal institutions in order to foster common practices and to promote co-operation in the handling of complaints in respect of the Authority;

(i) assist the Deputy Chief State Advocates and prosecutors in achieving the effective and fair administration of criminal justice;

(j) liaise with and assist the Attorney-General in matters of extradition and mutual legal assistance in criminal matters; and

(k) appoint such experts as are necessary to assist the Director of Public Prosecutions carry out any functions under this Act.

(3) Where, by any written law, the sanction, fiat or written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions is necessary for the commencement or continuance of the prosecution of any offence, the Director of Public Prosecutions may order, in writing, that all or any of the powers vested in the Director of Public Prosecutions to issue the sanction, fiat or written consent may be exercised by the Chief State Advocate or a Deputy Chief State Advocate, and the exercise of these powers by the Chief State Advocate or Deputy Chief State Advocate—

(a) shall be limited only to such offences as the Director of Public Prosecutions may specify; and

(b) shall operate as if the powers had been exercised by the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(4) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Chief State Advocate considers it in the interest of the administration of justice that an offence committed as a whole or partially within the area of jurisdiction of one Deputy Chief State Advocate be investigated and tried within the area of jurisdiction of another Deputy Chief State Advocate, the Director of Public Prosecutions or Chief State Advocate may, in writing, direct that the investigation and criminal proceedings in respect of such offence be conducted and commenced within the area of jurisdiction of such other Deputy Chief State Advocate.

(5) The Director of Public Prosecutions may direct the submission of and receive reports or interim reports from a Deputy Chief State Advocate in respect of a case, a matter, a prosecution or a prosecution process.

9. (1) The Board shall, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, appoint a Chief State Advocate, Deputy Chief State Advocates, State Advocates and other staff of the Authority.

(2) A Deputy Chief State Advocate shall be responsible for supervising the operations of the Authority in a province.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution and this Act, a Deputy Chief State Advocate shall, subject to the control and direction of the Director of Public Prosecutions, exercise the functions referred to in section five in respect of —

(a) the area of jurisdiction for which the Deputy Chief State Advocate is appointed; and

(b) any offences which have not been expressly transferred from the Deputy Chief State Advocate’s jurisdiction, either generally or in a specific case, by the Director of Public Prosecutions.

10. (1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may, by Gazette notice, appoint a person as a prosecutor for purposes of this Act and the Criminal Procedure Code.

(2) A prosecutor appointed under subsection (1) shall be competent to exercise any of the functions referred to in section five to the extent that the prosecutor has been authorised thereto, in writing, by the Director of Public Prosecutions, or by a person designated by the Director of Public Prosecutions.
(3) A written authorisation referred to in subsection (2) shall set out—
   (a) the area of jurisdiction;
   (b) the offences; and
   (c) the court;
in respect of which such powers may be exercised.

(4) The Director of Public Prosecutions may, at any stage of the criminal proceeding, give to the Chief State Advocate, a Deputy Chief State Advocate, a state advocate or a prosecutor such general or specific directions with respect to the performance of their functions, as the Director of Public Prosecutions considers necessary and the Chief State Advocate, Deputy Chief State Advocate, State Advocate and prosecutor shall give effect to such directions.

(5) A prosecutor who has been suspended from the prosecutor’s office under this Act or any other law, shall not be competent to exercise any of the functions referred to in section five for the duration of such suspension.

(6) In the performance of a prosecutor’s duties, a prosecutor shall—
   (a) carry out the prosecutor’s functions impartially and avoid all political, social, religious, racial, cultural, sexual or any other kind of discrimination;
   (b) protect the public interest, act with objectivity, take proper account of the position of the suspect and the victim, and pay attention to all relevant circumstances, irrespective of whether they are to the advantage or disadvantage of the suspect;
   (c) keep matters in the possession of the prosecutor confidential, unless the performance of a duty or the needs of justice require otherwise; and
   (d) consider the views and concerns of a victim where the victim’s interests are affected and ensure that the victim is informed of the rights.

(7) A prosecutor shall, in order to ensure the fairness and effectiveness of prosecution, cooperate with the police, the courts, the legal profession, public defenders and other government agencies or institutions.

11. (1) If a member or any person is present at a meeting of the Authority or any committee of the Authority at which any matter is the subject of consideration and in which matter the member or that person or the member’s or that person’s spouse is directly or indirectly interested, in a private capacity, the member or person shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare such interest and shall not, unless the Authority or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question touching that matter.

(2) A declaration of interest made under this paragraph shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both.

12. The Chief State Advocate, Deputy Chief State Advocates and other state advocates shall not while holding office of Chief State Advocate, Deputy Chief State Advocate and state advocate, hold or discharge the duties of any other office of emolument in the Republic.
